SEVIS Fee

If you apply for a student or exchange visitor visa (F-1, M-1, and J-1 visas), in most cases you must pay the SEVIS fee (SEVIS I-901 fee). Payments and inquiries are handled by the Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) and administered by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). For information about the fee and the payment processes and options, visit the ICE website <https://www.ice.gov/sevis> and <https://www.ice.gov/sevis/i901>

Further Instructions and Information:

- Do not pay the SEVIS fee before you have a Form I-20 or DS-2019
- Pay the SEVIS fee before your visa interview appointment
- Do not leave SEVIS fee payment to the last minute
- You must bring the SEVIS fee payment receipt to your visa interview
- The SEVIS fee is non-refundable

Important - If you have a spouse or child traveling with you, they must apply for an F-2/M-2/J-2 visa. The dependents are not required to pay the SEVIS fee.

SEVIS and SEVP

SEVIS stands for Student and Exchange Visitor information System. SEVIS is an Internet-based system that maintains data on foreign students and exchange visitors, as well as your dependents, before and during your stay in the US. It is a key part of Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) administered by ICE within the Department of Homeland Security (DHS).
