

Understanding Migration A capacity building workshop

Monday, July 30 - Friday, August 3, 2018
Chennai

United States-India Educational Foundation (USIEF) and the Department of Social Work, Loyola College, Chennai, invite applications for a workshop on Understanding Migration, a capacity building workshop for early to mid-career professionals in the field of migration.

About the workshop:

The workshop aims to provide participants a deeper insight into migration-related issues, national and international laws, and a glimpse into the life and experiences of migrants/refugees through field visits, talks and discussions covering the following topics:

- Introduction to Migration
- Typology of Migration
- Interstate Migration
- International Migration
- Forced Migration (both development and conflict based)

The workshop will be conducted by leading experts in the field of migration.

W o r k s h o p

W o r k s h o p

Selection of participants

The workshop is meant for early to mid-career professionals with some experience of working with migrants, and those aiming to work in related areas. A maximum of 35 participants will be selected.

Certificate of participation

A certificate of participation will be issued on successful completion of the workshop.

Registration and other logistics

There is no registration fee for the workshop. However, participants are expected to take care of their own travel and accommodation in Chennai. Limited financial support towards accommodation expenses is available on a need basis. Any transport within Chennai as part of the workshop, lunch, and tea/coffee will be provided.

Last date for registration

Please complete the application form on web-link: <https://bit.ly/2JHSCWb> by Wednesday, June 20, 2018. Please apply only if you are sure of your participation, if shortlisted.

Confirmation of participation

Shortlisted applicants will be informed through email by Wednesday, June 27, 2018.

Contact information

For any queries about the workshop, local accommodation and other logistics, please contact Ms Vijayalakshmi Loganathan on email: vijayalakshmilognathan@gmail.com.

About United States - India Educational Foundation (www.usief.org.in)

The United States - India Educational Foundation (USIEF) was established in 1950 to promote mutual understanding between the people of the United States and India through the U.S. Government's flagship Fulbright Program for educational and cultural exchanges. USIEF administers the Fulbright-Nehru and other Fulbright fellowships for American and Indian students, faculty and professionals. USIEF also provides information to Indian students on higher education opportunities in the U.S. through the EducationUSA program supported by the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs.

About Loyola College (www.loyolacollege.edu)

Loyola College is one of the premier arts and science colleges in Chennai and the department of social work has offered academic programs for the past six decades to bring about social change and societal transformation. Department of Social Work has tied up with various government and non-government organizations for research studies, seminars, conferences and workshops.